

Motion Graphics Designer

UK | Remote from home

Quadmark is a global training and enablement agency working with some of the largest technology brands in the world. Video is integral to the many solutions we provide. We're looking for an experienced, multi-skilled creative to join our in-house video team of animators and editors.

If you have the required experience, commitment and passion, and would like to join a growing company with a fun, down to earth attitude, we would love to hear from you.

What will you do?

- Produce 2D animated content for a wide range of digital projects.
- Be responsible for the end-to-end production of video, utilising post-production processes, including video and audio manipulation, text and motion graphics, sound and music, pacing, and rendering for a wide range of digital applications.
- Work in close collaboration with account managers, project managers, content writers, and graphic designers to produce high quality content within the brand guidelines of our clients.

You must

- Have 3+ years experience as a motion graphics designer in a commercial environment.
- Be highly skilled in the production of 2D digital animation, including the use of character rigging using tools such as DUIS, Rubberhose, and Joysticks n Sliders.
- Be highly skilled in all elements of video post production.
- Be an experienced user of the Adobe Creative Suite, specifically: After Effects, Premier Pro, and Illustrator.
- You can work methodically with high attention to detail.
- You can communicate confidently at all levels, face-to-face and virtually.
- You can work independently and as part of a larger remote team.
- You have a passion for technology and innovation.
- You are an experienced (or willing to become) user of Google Workspace.

Highly desirable

- 3D character/environment modeling and character animation in Blender.
- Not required to apply, but please highlight experience in any of the following: Video filming/streaming, AR/VR.

To thrive at Quadmark you also have these attributes:

- Humility - you are self aware, self critical, respectful and modest. You have a great sense of humour and don't take yourself too seriously.
- Adaptability - you are curious by nature and motivated by constant change. You ask lots of questions and look for opportunities to develop yourself. You are forward thinking, challenge the norm and like to be stretched out of your comfort zone.
- Commitment - you are high energy and have a strong work ethic. You are an organised person who doesn't mind rolling up their sleeves and getting on with it, with a sense of ownership and resourcefulness.
- Collaboration - you have an open, honest and transparent communication style. You operate with teamwork first. You are a good listener, open to the ideas and share knowledge to enable and better others.
- Caring - trust and mutual respect are a given for you. You care about the outcome and are willing to go the extra mile and make a difference. You always look for the opportunity to help others when bandwidth allows.

About Quadmark

Back in 1999 we began our mission to inspire teams to think differently about their customer experience. We do this through a blend of advising, creating and enablement. We now work with some of the world's most exciting organisations to drive growth and productivity throughout their ecosystem.

We love working with fast paced and continuously evolving organisations because we understand what it takes to inspire change and learning in tech savvy teams. We deliver quantifiable results through a blend of global expertise, customised training and sales enablement.

We really do understand complex business and the latest market challenges, allowing us to motivate teams to go to market using relevant, technology driven and creative sales tools. We integrate our expertise into dynamic businesses by sharing our channel know-how and designing genuinely creative content.
